Chairman's Message

Advertisers please note, I received 416 replies to my request for the views of members on club affairs. I can sincerely state that not one reply was written in a satirical or critical tone, each contained positive suggestions from good club members. I have carefully collated these suggestions and they will be placed before your committee.

In addition to the above those who wrote regarding our race meeting please keep Saturday, September 10, free. Your seats are already reserved. We open up the spring meeting with the best horses running in the Chelmsford Stakes, James Barnes Plate and the Tattersall's Tramway Handicap.

I have read that — "the race is not always to the swift nor the battle to the strong" — but don't bet that way.

At the special general meeting your subscription was increased by 70c per week, just 14c less than a packet of cigarettes. Bruce McHugh, one of our younger bookmaker members moved an amendment that the entrance fee for a bookmaker be reduced from $700 to $400.

Bruce stated his case clearly and concisely and was supported by one of our former leviathan bookmakers, Tom Powell. It is not often that Tom speaks at a general meeting but when he does those present sit up and listen. The amendment was carried by an overwhelming majority.

Your committee did not seek an increase in the subscription for "Senior Members". This has resulted in numerous enquiries as to what constitutes a senior member. Briefly, any member who has attained the age of 60 years with 35 years membership.

These enquiries counteract Jonathan Swift's theory that — "Every man desires to live long, but no one be old".

I anticipate a drop off in membership due to the rise in subscription, but these are usually confined to "non user members". As Groucho Marx said "I would not like to be a member of any club, who would have me as a member".

However, Tattersall's men have rallied to the cause and nominations for new members are coming in. Keep it up thank you. We will have to replace the drop outs.

The Doncaster Ball is off due to a clash of dates. Expert advice is not to hold the ball on race night. A "Spring Ball" will be held on a week night prior to the Epsom Metropolitan double. This will be during the last week in September. I will keep you advised.

The questioning member always says, "What do I get out of the club". It is wrong that they should expect money's worth in material things only. They should look for the richer dividends drawn from association with men of goodwill and good conduct, mutual trust and brotherhood. For truly a club is what its members make it, no more, no less.

To acquire these dividends join one of the internal clubs listed on this page. Congratulations to the Epicurean Club for the "house full" sign for the evening harbour cruise on the "John Cadman". Well done Vic Vadas and his committee.

Always remember — The world is a looking glass, and gives back to every man the reflection of his own face. Frown at it, and it in turn will look sourly upon you; laugh at it and with it, and it is a jolly, kind companion.

With every good wish

J.V. Comans
Chairman

TOM KENNEDY BECOMES A DIRECTOR OF THE STC

A happy party was given by Sydney Turf Club director Keith Harris and wife Betty to celebrate the election of club member Tom Kennedy to the board of directors of the Turf Club.

Wife Leonie must have felt very proud of Tom when NSW cabinet member Rex Jackson, Minister for Youth and Community Service spoke in praise of Tom's achievements.

In the gathering were A.J.C. committeeman, Bob Howell QC and wife Estelle, Jim (Fabulous) Fleming and wife Lois, S.T.C. committeeman Don Storey accompanied by wife Val and our chairman Jim Comans and wife Gwen. All present agreed that Keith and Betty had been most gracious hosts.

Keith Miller now a Club Member

New Tattersalls Club member Keith Miller has been a champion cricketer, a two State Aussie Rules representative, first class pilot, dedicated punter, classical music buff, an all-media commentator, the object of feminine adoration on several continents, and more recently appointed a public relations officer for the soccer pools. But he has always preferred to be regarded as a champion bloke, writes well known Australian sporting writer Jack Pollard.

Miller was born to fly. He was called Keith Ross Miller because his birth occurred while Keith and Ross Smith were making their epic flight from England to Australia.

At Alford in 1945, Miller's Mosquito fighter plane came in to land with the starboard engine spurting flame. Skilfully, in a variable wind, Miller made a belly landing in which the Mosquito lost its tail.

It was while training with the RAAF in Canada that he got leave to go south into the U.S. Many of his mates preferred New York, but Keith went to Boston to hear the Boston Symphony Orchestra. There he met his wife Peggy. They married after

CEC O'DEA: SPORTSMAN AND CLUB IDENTITY

Cecil O'Dea joined Tattersall's Club on June 27, 1927, so is presently approaching his half century membership.

As a youth, Rugby Union football was his main sporting interest. He played first grade for Randwick, Eastern Suburbs and University.

University won the premiership twice and then, in 1931 Easts' were the premiers, with Cec figuring in each winning side.

The formidable Uni. front row of Brian Windeyer, Rolly Waddington (father of Tattersall's Peter Waddington) and Cec was THE front row of the time. Cec capped his achievements by playing for New South Wales.

His football was played with great vim — a broken nose did not deter him from going down in the scrum. He devised a cage to protect his proboscis, and, though chided by his mates, it earned him the respect of players and opponents alike.

Football was so much in his blood that after playing on a Saturday afternoon he would then double up to play in the Rugby League Surf Club competition on Sunday morning.

And, with a little name dropping, he would then join players such as Wally Meagher, Alec Ross, Geoff Storey, Norm Garvie, and Ron Smith in some pretty rough and tumble contests.

Cec O'Dea

When Cec retired from active football he continued his interest in coaching and administration with Eastern Suburbs, and several of the teams he coached won premierships.

Cec was a member of the Bondi Surf Club, although he is probably better remembered for vigorous wrestling and general chi-acking activities than for rescuing distressed damsels from the sea.

Living close to the water it was natural he developed an interest in sailing. He was a foundation member of Vaucluse 12ft. Amateur Association and repeatedly was able to right his capsized boat quicker than anyone else — no doubt due to his great amount of practice.

Cec also sailed as navigator in two Sydney-Hobart yacht races.

During World War II he was in command of an R.A.N. ship in our northern waters.

His life has always been marked by incessant and diversified activity.

Cec graduated in the middle of the depression, set about establishing his own legal practice, and he joined a partnership with J.J. & S.J. Carroll to establish the widely respected firm of Carroll and O'Dea.

In 1948 he took on a new responsibility when he acquired a dairy property. He bought the historic home "Sunnyside" at North Richmond, built some 150 years ago by the Pitt family, and with his wife Joy, restored the homestead and garden to their former beauty.

Cec researched dairy breeds and now "Sunnyside" is a first rate Friesian Stud and dairy.

In the early 1950's he was the first to import semen of leading overseas Friesian bulls for the purpose of upgrading the Australian breeding standards.

In the administration of the Friesian Cattle Club, Cec has been Federal and State president, publicity officer and treasurer. He has represented Australia at a number of World Friesian Conferences, including the 1976 Conferences, including the 1976 meeting in England, and for some time he was chairman of Tancred Bros. Industries.

In another sphere, Cec has been a member of the board of the Mater Misericordiae Hospital at North Sydney and of St. Joseph's Hospital, Auburn. He is also a life vice-president of River-view Old Boys, and president of two occasions.

Cecil's father was John Henry O'Dea who developed large sections

WINING, DINING & SOCIAL

Allan Cam and his wife Gay with children Bradley, Fiona and Scott held a family party in the dining room to mark the appointment of Fiona as a prefect for 1977 at the Sacred Heart Convent, Rose Bay.

A second reason for the party was to celebrate the 50th birthday of close family friend Jim Brewer that same day who was a guest with his wife Nancy.

Jim and Gwen Lang celebrated their daughter Susan's birthday at the Club when they dined with Susan and her husband Keith and enjoyed a pleasant evening's entertainment and dancing.

* * *

Terry Gavan and their family and friends were among those who joined in the holiday celebrations in the Club dining room at their traditional New Year gathering.

Member R.D. Perry and his family enjoyed the club's amenities when they celebrated wife Betty's birthday, with Gregory, Gai and friends also guests at dinner and dancing.

Keith was discharged in 1946 and have lived since in the Sydney suburb of Newport.

The Millers have four sons. The first boy was named William after one of Keith's airmen cobbers from Broken Hill. The third was named Denis after Miller's mate Denis Compton, at a time when Compton's fortunes were in the doldrums.

Miller, a genuine authority on classical music, numbers as many famous musicians among his friends as he does jockeys and racecourse urgers.

"I have seen him at the Royal Albert Hall earnestly discussing with Sir John Barbarolli the great conductor's interpretation of a famous piece. I have also been to some pretty bawdy places with him," says Jack Pollard.

"We wrote a book together once and when we got to the part about how young cricketers should stand at the crease, Keith couldn't tell me where he put his feet and hands."

"I'm damned if I know," he said and then yelled to young Billy to bring in a bat so he could think about it, probably for the first time in his life.

"Miller can swap jokes with royalty one minute and have a beer with a strapper the next. In his playing days, when the Duke of Edinburgh or the late King George VI came on to the field at Lord's to shake hands with the Australian team, it was always noticeable that most of our lads froze while Miller made the Duke or the King laugh.

"As an old newspaperman I have always considered that Australian newspapers have failed to get the best out of this incredibly colorful character. In England, they have had the good sense to exploit his flair.

"I remember particularly a series of articles at the start of one English flat-racing season when Keith described how he flew his fighter up the straights at Royal Ascot, Goodwood and the other great race tracks.

"He also wrote that the big frustration of his life had been when his mother took him to the Victoria Racing Club and he discovered that he was too big to become a jockey".

As a boy he wanted to ride a Melbourne Cup winner or an English Derby Winner more than to play Test cricket for Australia or to represent Victoria and New South Wales at Aussie Rules. He has owned several horses and his closest friends include Scobie Breasley and other great jockeys.

As a cricketer, Miller could swing a Test in a few overs of glorious shot-making and big hitting or three overs of fast bowling.

He was a superlative slips fieldsman who took match-winning catches in between gossiping to our slips cordon about horses he had going.

In all he scored 41 hundreds in first-class cricket, hit 9,258 runs and took 170 Test wickets. He also kicked a football further than most of us have seen it kicked and got down to a six handicap at golf.

Miller has joined Tattersall's Club mindful of the club's history of comradeship and sportsmanship. It is very doubtful if even Tattersall's can boast of a member with a more colorful background and with such a wide-ranging repertoire of breezy stories.

EPICUREANS 1977 OPENING DINNER

by Vic Vadas

On the evening of February 22, 140 Epicureans dined, wine and danced on board the John Cadman cruising restaurant.

Spirits undaunted by the inclement weather they enjoyed each other's company, the excellent food and their zippy little band to dance to.

The slowly cruising boat gave everybody a chance to admire the silhouette of the glittering lights of our wonderful city.

It was a pleasure to see our chairman, Jim Comans and his lovely wife Gwen enjoying themselves and meeting so many of their good friends.

The Zappia brothers toasting champagne to their horse's forthcoming win.

As it happened Princess Rada ran third on the following Saturday at Warwick Farm.

It was nice to see the Lenehans, Peter and Deidre Magnus, the Fishers, Neville Amy, the Sellens and our past chairman, Geoff Eastment and Rhona being so energetic on the dance floor.

Our new members like the two Kwan families, Ian Neil, the Barnes, Bill Aitkenhead and their guests seem to be having a wonderful time and hope that we shall see them again soon.

The evening passed very quickly and we all felt a bit sad when saying goodbye at the points of disembarkation.

Our next evening is on APRIL 5. Seats are limited to 80 so please book early — don't be disappointed.

of Kensington and Brighton. He was a Committee member of Tattersalls in pre-war years and will be remembered for his leadership which led to the provision of the third floor pool and other facilities.

Nothing gives Cec more pleasure than frequenting the third floor where his boundless humour and energy are enjoyed.

Joy, Cec's wife, provides that joint-venture effort so essential to success, life and good living.

He has two sons, Michael, our Club's present handball champion, and David who lives on his Canowindra property. His 11 grandchildren provide him with much enjoyment and keep him constantly on his toes.

We are pleased to have Cecil as one of our senior members and we wish him many years of happiness both for himself and in giving so much pleasure to others.

Laurie Maher

Billiards & Snooker

by Syd Lane

It seems to be only a few days since I wrote my final notes on the 1976 tournaments and championships, and here we are again, preparing for the 1977 events.

In this issue you will find the nomination form for the two handicap tourneys, and we optimistically hope for even better "acceptances" than last year, which was our most successful series for a decade.

To help the organizers, please be sure to give your phone numbers, and also be sure to indicate your suitable days for playing by ticking the appropriate boxes on the nomination form.

Entries close April 29 but please be early.

If you are a new player competing in these events for the first time, we would like you to introduce yourself to one of the sub-committee members who will be pleased to organize a friendly game in order to assess your ability and help the handicappers to give you a fair chance to compete on even terms with all starters.

The sub-committee is delighted to announce that our staunch supporter Tom Powell has again kindly donated a valuable trophy for the winner of the grand snooker handicap and on behalf of all players and spectators, we offer our thanks to Tom.

At our last sub-committee meeting Arthur Miller submitted his resignation in order to make way for a younger man, and Jack O'Neill accepted same with regret.

Arthur, (who is a life member) has served the Club in many capacities over a long period, during which he has been a member of the house committee, billiards & snooker committee in all capacities including chairman, and also reported for the Club magazine for several years.

Our good wishes go to Arthur and we look forward to seeing him in the billiard room for many more years.

A final reminder to complete your nomination form early and be sure to hand it in or mail it without delay.

The Mini Tournament now in progress is well worth watching.

SKI CLUB

Two separate week's skiing have been booked for club members and from inquiries already received should be fully booked.

FIRST WEEK

Thredbo - Roslyn Lodge Mixed Party -

July 2 - 9

No doubt you have heard about Roslyn Lodge and the hospitality extended to Tatts Ski Club members by Martin and Gwen, the managers.

Roslyn is ideally situated with a commanding view of the mountain. Accommodation is in twin and family rooms, each with facilities. The sauna, swimming pool and billiard room were also well patronised.

Evening meals have been planned of equal standard to last year, and Sue Phillips has offered to be our chef again with another assistant.

Roslyn provides breakfast, usually fruit juice, cereal or stewed fruit, bacon and eggs, toast etc. Tatts Ski Club arranges the evening meals.

During the week each member of the party will be rostered on one evening to do a small chore, thus sharing the duties equally.

Perhaps the big advantage of Thredbo is the fact that regardless of snow conditions on Crackenback, the Snow Cats are there to take our members out on the main range.

Charlie Coppa will also take interested langlaufers ski touring. Also the Ski Club wishes to record the Nastar ratings of all its members. So a great week should be enjoyed there. Maximum number in our party is 32 with space for about a dozen more in overflow accommodation - all found $170 per head approx. per week or $25 per day.

SECOND WEEK

Perisher - Werruna Lodge - Buck's Week

August 6 - 13

Werruna is well known to many Tatts members - a very well appointed and equipped lodge with table tennis room, magnificent lounge, reading room, each bedroom with own shower and toilet facilities, situated on the Kosciuszko Road, opposite the self loading T Bar in the centre valley.

This week will be catered for in the usual Buck's Week manner and a great week guaranteed to all members. All found $119 per head - $17 per day.

A full meeting of Ski Club directors will be held on Thursday March 24 at 6.30 p.m. at Tattersall's Club.

POOL HIGHLIGHTS

by Sam Block

Syd Kay whose mantle was "always the bridesmaid and never the bride" reversed the position during the December-January point score by winning four out of five finals that he contested, showing his nearest opponents a clean pair of heels, with a score of 34 points from John Reid and Gordon Salier tying for second place with a score of 22 points.

Our Syd has struck a purple patch of form and could be a real threat to the leaders in the Silver Sharpe trophy.

The February monthly resulted in a well deserved victory for our top television personality Bill Orme, with a score of 33 points with Derek Jackson in second place on 28 points followed by Jack Levy on 26 points.

The battle for Tony McSweeney's Silver Sharpe trophy is being very keenly contested with only 25 points separating the top 20 contenders. Harry Turner leads the field with a score of 81½, B. Debney 76, I. Joye 75, W. Orme 73, K. Finn 68½, J. Nicholas 67½, J. Levy 67½, M. Sernack 65½, M. O'Dea 63½, N. Menlove 62½, J. Meagher 62, S. Kay 61, M. McCormack 58.

The season is only half over and there could be big changes at any time with Kay, Nicholas, Sernack, Meagher, Menlove, Levy and O'Dea putting in fast finishing bursts.

The Tom Powell trophy leaders are B. Debney and H. Turner 6, J. McCosker 5½, J. Levy 4½, N. Menlove 4, S. Kay 4, K. Finn 3½, R. Debney 3½, J. Meagher 3½, J. Debney 3, C. Abotomey 3, T. Duckmanton 3, J. Barker 3, J. McGuire 3, J. Reid 3 and W. Orme 3.

Improving swimmer Neville Menlove

Jnr. has trimmed his handicap by 3 seconds, and I feel sure there is still room for a modest improvement.

The popular Jack Mandel Family Event consisting of seven relays over 40 and 80 yards starts on Thursday May 5.

Fastest winning times were D. Ferris 18.1, H. Turner 19.0 and 19.8, J. Nicholas 20.7, K. Tickle 20.5.

Newcomers welcomed were Brian Holmes, Tjeed La Grouw and Ernest Hichens.

Nice to see past chairman Geoff Eastment and David Morrissey back in the swim. The handicapper has smiled nicely on you, so keep it up boys.

Congratulations to Grant Lawry who has been made assistant general manager of the Commonwealth Trading Bank. Must see how the overdraft position stands.

Our pool regular David Dind who is president of North Sydney Anzac

THE GENIAL HOST WHO GREETS YOU IN THE DINING ROOM

Andrew Gardiner, respected and popular head waiter in the Club dining room, joined Tattersall's Club in 1950.

He originates from Melbourne and is married with one son, Peter, who has graduated Bachelor of Economics at Sydney University.

Andy was a foundation member of the Wine Service Guild, and has waited in many different parts of the Club as well as being assistant in charge of the stores and safe deposits.

In 1959 he was made senior steward in charge of bars and relieving head waiter in the dining room, after having been mainly dining room steward since starting at the Club.

In 1963 Andy was made head waiter.

He says, "It is a pleasure to serve the members who always treat the staff well, and it is interesting to know many of the leading citizens of Sydney".

"Members want to dine later in the evenings now than years ago, and while tastes in food might not have changed much, a great deal more wine is now being consumed with meals. The style of wine has changed from sauternes and porphyrys to rieslings and dry reds".

Andy says that while the Club has been a great institution since 1858 he feels and knows it will be so for generations to come.

Club celebrates his 40th (Ruby) wedding anniversary during the month and is his wife Helen in for a lovely surprise.

Ian Joye has given notice that he has designs on the Mandel Family Event in 20 years time as his lovely lady Judy has presented him with a son to be named either Sam or Mac. Ian is not sure whether its better to be in the good graces of the handicapper or starter.

Instead of the usual cigars Ian has donated a trophy honouring his father which will take the form of a championship event for 50 and over to be held on the same days of the club championship (heats and finals).

As usual the Christmas Scramble spectacular had the crowd on their toes when John Nicholas' "Eagles" clawed their way to victory by a clipped fingernail from Russell Debney's "Hawks" with a lip separating Bryan Mortensen's "Pigeons" from Doug Ferris' "Galahs".

Our compliments and thanks to the many donors who contributed towards its success among whom where Bill Aitkenhead, Len Burke, Viv Chalwin, David G. # HANDBALL

THE GRAND HANDICAP

by Peter Ashby

Quantitatively speaking, the Grand Handicap earns the flop classification but qualitatively, matches already concluded point to a surprise finale.

Some of the favourites have had their confidence severely shaken and some names new to the final rounds could be seen in action.

One of the brighter stars in the handball firmament, Ray Hopkins, has already revealed that he is in top form and will take a "tonne" of beating before he is eliminated.

With Michael O'Dea still active in the tournament no player can afford to be over confident and that tough young competitive nut, Charles Robinson, has his vision firmly fixed on only one result.

Charlie conceded Clive Milliken a massive 21 points start in a 41 up game and won handsomely, 41-34.

Charlie scored 41 points to 13 scored by Clive, and there are very few players capable of administering such a drubbing to an improving and fit player of Clive's class.

John Barnes tore shreds from another tournament hopeful and last year's B. Grade winner, Phil Moses. Phil, with an eight point start could be forgiven for thinking himself a fairly good thing, but John Barnes went on to win very easily 41-27.

Ray Hopkins stood big John Ried, last year's runner-up in the B Grade final, a big start to the tune of 22 points.

John may have lacked match practise at the time of playing but he performed valiantly to hold Ray throughout the game.

Ray, against a player of John's stature, must have felt as though he was out of sight but playing some devastating handball, eventually earned the umpire's pat, 41-39.

Ray played on immediately against another surprise first round winner in the improving shape of David Dobbin.

Ray, giving away a 24 point start, went on to a very easy win that could mainly be attributed not only to far superior skill but also to a vast reservoir of experience and condition to be able to play two competitive 41 up matches in less than one hour.

Ray is now well on his way to the final rounds of this mammoth tournament.

Charlie enjoyed a four point start but the result was never in doubt.

Norman Rogers bounced back into tournament calculations with a big win at the expense of Michael Frawley by 41-35.

A determined John McKillop received 8 points start and never allowed yours truly to make up any leeway in winning 41-34.

Bruce Upcroft proved no match for club champion Michael O'Dea, who won 41-37.

Tyres, David Castle and Richard Horn both supplied a surprise result by beating two experienced and capable handballers, William Hannan and Robert Lipman. Both Bill and Bob would have been at long odds on to win.

David Castle must have felt elated when he eliminated Bill Hannan, helped by a 17 point start, by 43-41. To get into advantage play with a player of Bill's ability and still win is quite an achievement.

John McGuire, always a threat in a competition game, gave a controlled exhibition of power handball to beat Bob Adams, 41-32. Bob, off to an early start with a luxury handicap of 18, had no answer for John's savagery and gradually lost his early advantage.

Don Stait proved too great a hurdle for Nick Virag who hasn't been able to practise as much as would be ideal. Nick received 16 points start but he went down to a determined Don Stait 41-31.

Big Bill Sellen and Bill Orme played an exciting match that proved a handicapper's dream with Big Bill winning 44-42. Bill Orme received 5 start and did well to go down by only two advantage points. Big Bill has been playing very well lately and might have proved to be an embarrassment to the handicappers.

Malcolm Fuller proved far too much of a handful for Martin McCurich who enjoyed an early advantage of 12 points. Malcolm, as always, played a safe, confident game and was never in doubt as the winner.

Ken Glass stormed to a 41-34 victory over Tim O'Dillo-Maher. Ken gave a start of 18 points as well as a thorough drubbing and failing an unexpected result seems assured of a quarter-final spot.

Paul Vracknass was responsible for a surprise by beating experienced Rod Fisher 41-37. Paul, from a start of 12 points went on to a 41-37 victory. It was a well merited win and a fitting reward for a keen player.

Bill Blakemore, one of Tattersall's star players and one who has shown incredible improvement over the past two years beat an always trying Arthur O'Connor 41-27. However, his rent opponent, Michael O'Dea, will prove hard to beat even with an 18 point start.

John McInerney defeated! Tony Baine gained a headline victory 41-26 over an out of form John McInerney, last year's runner-up in this event.

ARTHUR O'CONNOR RETIRES

HANDBALL CLUB HAS A NEW ASSISTANT SECRETARY

Members of the handball committee were wholehearted in conveying their thanks to Arthur O'Connor for his untiring efforts during the past three years as assistant secretary.

Arthur had notified his desire to retire, and had originally agreed to accept nomination for the position only for the settling in period of the replacement secretary following the long successful era of Norman Rogers' secretaryship.

Norm, secretary for many years, was responsible for that memorable and noteworthy innovation, the promotion of Tattersall's Plate, regarded as the State handball singles championship. The Plate has become the most keenly sought trophy in handball.

Newly elected assistant secretary, John Barnes, enjoys the confidence of all handball players and his interest and active participation in the sport augers well for the future of the game.

BOWLING NOTES

by Sol Green

At last a serious effort has been made to reach finality in the singles championship of the Club.

Several matches holding up progress have been decided and one of the semi-finals have been played.

At Double Bay Club Lou Malouf and David Cohen met and this looked like being a close game was expected but as has happened so often this year, this was not to be the case.

The game finished on the 28th end with David maintaining the pressure and running out the winner 31-13.

The first between Jack McKell and George Morrow was expected to be a closer finish than proved to be the case.

George finished the match with two shots on the 36th end to win 31-24.

The other game was between Horrie Abbott and David Cohen, and again it did not prove to be the close affair expected.

David, maintaining the form he had shown from the start, scored a good four shots on the 24th end to lead 27-13 and although Horrie replied with three shots on the next end, David wrote finish to the game with two shots on the last two ends to win 31-16.

The present holder of the title, Ron Relton received a forfeit from Eric Rheuben and the position is that the winner of the match between George Morrow and Ron Relton will meet David Cohen in the final.

By the time this issue of the magazine reaches you we will have left to join the 12th Turf Bowlers Carnival on the Gold Coast, with Brisbane Tattersall's as hosts.

At present it appears that we will be fully represented but as is generally the case we will be without some of our top players.

President Fuzz and Jack Freeman (Newcastle Tattersall's) have arranged a game between the two Clubs to be played at Gosford on Tuesday, April 19.

We only await news from Gosford that they can entertain us on 19th.

Please note the game will be played on Tuesday (not our usual Thursday).

Nice to see Keith Manion is once more among us. If present appearances count for anything he should soon be bowling touchers again.

VALE

On May 28, 1948 Gordon Booth, with 16 other members of Tattersall's Club, founded the Tattersall's Bowling Club. With his passing there is only one of these foundation members playing with the Club today - Harold Hill.

Gordon was determined that the young club would prosper and by the end of July had enticed a further 56 members to join the new Club.

He filled the position of secretary for four years and in 1952 was elected president, a position he filled with credit and dignity for the next nine years. In recognition of his services over the years he was elected to life membership.

The Club has lost a devoted supporter, we have all lost a very dear friend and are the poorer by his passing. He will live in our memory for many a day.
